

THE GREAT AERONAUTICAL ART HUNT 2015

A project designed to encourage young people to look at their local history and heritage to see how this can inspire them in their future careers. In particular looking at the Aerospace and Engineering Industries.

Patchway Community College has been working with the Bristol Aerospace Centre and My Future My Choice, supported by Rolls-Royce to create a series of exciting engineering based lessons and workshops to be delivered to 10 local Primary Schools and 3 Secondary schools. Our aim is to inspire our young people about the amazing industries and opportunities that surround them.

Connecting young people with their futures

The young people taking part will also work with a professional artist to create designs for 65 aviation themed sculptures depicting a selection of aircraft flying around the world. With the help of the project's business partners the finished sculptures will be displayed at a variety of locations. Children, their families will follow the 'Aero Hunt' trail over the 2015 summer holidays, taking pictures and gathering information about Bristol's aviation heritage and future.

A project of this scale requires a collaborative approach. We are therefore looking for a number of sponsorship partners over a range of financial levels from Entry, Foundation and Intermediate through to Headline, Higher level partners who, in addition to becoming a host site for a sculpture, will have the opportunity to be directly involved in the delivery of the project. As part of your sponsorship package you could become a host site for one of the sculptures.

More than 4,000 young people taking part

In addition to the positive publicity, greater brand awareness and the opportunity to support and engage with the local community, your involvement with this project will provide you with the ability to inspire your employees of the future.
